

Dawn Montgomery

Dawn Montgomery, Ed.D., currently leads the Educational Administrator programs at Lewis & Clark College in Portland, Oregon. Dawn's 32 years in K-12 education supports her service to coaching and professional development of leaders. Her varied work experience include elementary and middle school teacher, middle and high school vice principal, high school principal, and district office director overseeing many district programs and initiatives including: alternative education, mathematics, counseling, high school diplomas, college prep, district equity team, grading and assessment, professional learning communities, etc. She also serves as a Courage and Renewal facilitator, a trainer for Uniting to Understand Racism and a facilitator of teacher Inquiry Teams.

“Marge Piercy’s poem “To Be of Use” illustrates my philosophy and my commitment to education and to coaching educational leaders. “I want to be with people who... submerge in the task...who are not parlor generals and field deserters but move in a common rhythm when the food must come in or the fire be put out...” The hard tasks necessary to make a difference for all students in our schools is the work that matters,”the thing worth doing well done” and is where my heart lies. Preparing and coaching administrators that lead our schools is exciting work for me after a full career in K-12 education.”

Academic Credentials

Ed.D. 2007 Lewis & Clark, M.A. 1980 University of Oregon, B.A. 1979 University of Oregon

For more information on Dawn's coaching services, contact dawnm@lclark.edu or call 503.701.8475.